SUBJECT: Intelligence Authorization Act Excerpts

1. Attached FYI are excerpts from the Intelligence Authorization Act for 1987, which include Authorization Conference views on several personnel issues and task a report on the Moscow security program.

2. The Committees continued their usual approach by splitting the difference between the House and Senate proposals. The House had suggested a reduction of  to the CIAP and the Senate . As shown in Attachment A, the Directorate of Administration (DA) 1987 program was reduced by  including a cut  in our personnel request. These are not the final congressional cuts, however. The Appropriations Committees are still conferring, and their decisions could lead to still further reductions.

3. Actions that affect the DA are shown in Attachments B and C. Attachment D contains a list of excerpts that are of general interest. The Intelligence Community Staff (ICS) will be responsible for levying specific tasking for these actions, but the Offices of Personnel and Security should be working on them in the meantime. For planning purposes, bear in mind that the reports will be due a few weeks prior to the date requested by the Committee to provide review and coordination time for the Comptroller and ICS.
